We have the technology in the room to show the slides, so will have it queued up. Is this the version of the powerpoint you were presenting? I think it's the one we queued up on June 11th. Do you want us to bring handouts of it?

Bridget-

Yes, we should recap the story. I forget if we already showed them those slides? I know we had very little time. It sounds like you're thinking that even if we did, we show them again?

Clay - does that work for you?

I think we should be prepared to tell the story via a powerpoint before jumping in to questions. was that your plan? Should we start with the same PPT we had queued up a couple months ago before we ran out of time?

Bridget-

The only new product we have since the last briefing that I know of is the response to questions Todd asked us for. I sent that to a Gary last Thursday, suggesting he pass it on to Susan Combs et al. I'll try to send that to you.

I was just about to ask Gary what he thinks we should have, or not.

Clay?
